It may be targeting an external audience or internal stakeholders to meet specific PR objectives. Details of systematic planning and budgets should include a breakdown of all relevant stakeholders and audiences.

4. FINANCIAL COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN

This award recognizes the most effective on-going campaign or one-off project in the financial sector primarily targeting investors or other financial industry audiences. Winning entries will have to demonstrate effective PR engagement and efficient sharing of financial information, making meaningful and measurable contribution to an organization's bottom-line hence reducing uncertainty and building market confidence.

5. INTERNAL COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes an outstanding internal communication campaign that has engaged internal stakeholders such as communicating a merger, change management, rebranding, restructuring, or other issue/problem of an internal communications nature. Judges will recognize excellence in engagement that inspires action and drives the employee experience forward through on-going strategic relations to promote organizational objectives.

6. MEDIA RELATIONS CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes the most effective and successful use of media relations in a wider public relations context that meets client and/or campaign objectives. Judges will be looking for evidence on budget, strategy and tactics, including creativity and innovation and how it influences and changes behaviour among the target audiences. Entries must display how the campaign met the projects objectives.

7. NOT FOR PROFIT CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes the most effective work for or by a charity, voluntary or non-profit organization for fundraising, or in changing/enlisting political, public, or corporate opinion. Judges will be looking out for clear campaign objectives, budget, audience insight, innovative and inventive execution and evidence based results. Particularly, attention should be paid to the impact and cost effectiveness of the campaign, and in the case of fundraising activities to the monies received set target.

8. NEW MEDIA PR CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes the most successful campaign in creation of omni-channel digital content across different digital platforms and devices, which enhances meaningful target audience engagement. Judges will look for the best use of digital platforms to execute/support PR campaign across multiple channels or in one particular channel where the campaign excelled. Judges will also look at a clear research, approach and execution with tangible results of digital strategies across platforms.

9. PARTNERSHIP ENGAGEMENT INITIATIVE OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes public sector agencies - government ministries, departments, parastatals and local authorities - for collaborating across skills and geographies to create tangible success for a campaign/project. Judges will be looking at a campaign that successfully integrates a number of public sector organizations working in partnership to achieve a joint goal.

10. PUBLIC AFFAIRS CAMPAIGN OF THE YEAR

This award recognizes the most effective use of PR to change/enlist political and/or public opinion utilizing public affairs tactics. Judges will be looking for evidence of work in research, media relations, grassroots community activity, lobbying and the distinct role and evidence-based results of public affairs and lobbying.
